Good NEWS-One of the largest and and shoes ever brought to this market, has tieth and Poplar streets, Cairo, Ills. just been received by Messrs. Hardy & Greenwold, No. 105 Commercial ave. These gentlemen are both practical workmen in the boot and shoe business; have had a larger experience, and cannot be deceived into purchasing anything but the very best stock.

They employ a number of first-class workmen at their establishment, and are manufacturing EVERY VARIETY AND STYLE of Ladies and Misses' shoes and gaiters at St. Louis prices, and guarantee satisfaction. They make these a specialty They also make to order all kinds of fine calf, kip or leather boots, in style and price

Nonopy denies that if you would have oysters by the plate, stewed, fried, roasted aw or on the half-shell, by the dozen, can or barrel, there is only one place in the city where you can get the freshest, uiciest and best. That place by common consent is the Thalia Oyster saloon, at the corner of Twelfth street and Washngton avenue, and, while there, if you should chance to call for a glass of St. Louis lager; a glass of wine, native or toreign, or something of a stronger kind, your own good taste will testify that Jackel keeps the best. Then go to the Thalia, call for what you want to eat or drink, and if you are not more than satisfied, everybody will say that you must charge your dissatisfaction to your own depraved taste.

FRATHERS in large or small quantities at very low figures at H. Levi's hide store, on Ohio Leves.

HOME AGAIN .- Mr. Goldstine, of the firm of Goldstine & Rosenwater, has returned home from New York, where he has been making large purchases of winter dry goods, clothing, etc. Luckily, Mr. Goldstine had completed all his purchases before the Boston fire, and therefore before the late advance in prices. Messrs. Goldstine & Rosen water can, consequently, sell at prices exceedingly below those now current in this market. They ask the public to call and inspect their goods and ascertain their prices, being satisfied that no one will go away from the store, leaving behind them the bargains this firm are prepared to offer.

Notice!-The ladies who have been waiting for our underwear to arrive, will now find an ample supply at our store. Our success in this specialty has been marked, and our efforts to meet the wants of this trade has met with the proper encouragement. The demand this season for this class of goods has been such as to tax our ability to meet, but we are now able to fill every want in this line, and our prices will be found even lower than heretofore. "The nimble six-pence" is what wins. The attention of the gentlemen is also requested. Our stock of gents' underwear is the largest and most varied in the city, and we can save you 25 per cent. on your underwear. Make a note of this.

STUART & GUOLSON 11-24-21 MRS. ANNA LANG.
